Subject: (_____)

To Whomever It May Concern,

I am John Miller residing in _____(permanent address) is very close with my child_____ (child name) and is fighting for his/her custody with my wife as we are now separated because of _____(mention reason). I can take full responsibility for my child and is capable of giving good and happy life.

I can assure to love him/her and be a caring father. I will be a guide and always teach him/her the difference between right and wrong. I know I take care of my child and be with him/her whenever _____(child name) need me in life.

Please look into the matter and after checking from all prospects hand handover the custody in the right hands.

Thanking You

Yours Truly,
