Subject: Winter Garments Bulk Order Cancellation

Dear Mike Aniston,

We are connected on business terms for the past eleven years and have developed a healthy business relationship. You placed a bulk order of winter garments collection. Your order was ready to dispatch however, due to a short circuit in our warehouse, the majority of the goods caught fire and the remaining ones are in bad condition.

Although there are a few pieces left, they are to be dispatched to some other buyer. Kindly accept my apology for the inconvenience. I will update you with the latest collection when it will be ready to dispatch. I hope you'll co-operate with us.

Thank you.

Regards,
